31st SEASON FINALE

Dear Friends and Supporters,

The Alhambra Orchestra, founded in 1990, has a mission of promoting classical music and music education. It is a self-governing, independent nonprofit. All of its management, and most of its musicians, are volunteers, and nearly all of its performances are free so that everyone in our community can enjoy great music. In this 31st performing season, the orchestra has been producing videos to fulfill its mission during the global pandemic, until it becomes safe to assemble a full orchestra with audience.

For this special event, we are ecstatic to present masterworks by four great melodists, including a sparkling concerto by a youthful Felix Mendelssohn. A perfect conclusion to the conclusion of our season. We hope you enjoy it!

We look forward to Seeing You At The Online Premier!

PROGRAM

A CELEBRATION 31 YEARS IN THE MAKING

Join your Alhambra Orchestra for a virtual season finale of gigantic proportions. Our Season Finale Concert concludes with a crafted and finely detailed performance by Maestro Daniel Andai and Ciro Fodere as the soloists for Mendelssohn's "Double Concerto," accompanied by Alhambra Orchestra strings.

Adding to the excitement of the program, enjoy a powerful and celebratory performance of one of the most recognizable of Mozart's chamber works, the Quintet for Piano and Winds, and two lovely string orchestra works: "Chrysanthemums" by Puccini and "Andante Festivo" by Sibelius.
