SONGS OF THE AGES

Dear Friends and Supporters,

The Alhambra Orchestra, founded in 1990, has a mission of promoting classical music and music education. It is a self-governing, independent nonprofit. All of its management, and most of its musicians, are volunteers, and nearly all of its performances are free so that everyone in our community can enjoy great music.

In this 31st performing season, the orchestra has been producing videos to fulfill its mission during the global pandemic, until it becomes safe to assemble a full orchestra with audience.

For this event, we are ecstatic to join efforts with Miami Collegium Musicum. The two organizations have delighted audiences with several collaborative programs in recent years. We hope you enjoy it!

We look forward to Seeing You At The Premier!

Meet Miami Collegium Musicum

Miami Collegium Musicum is an independent chamber choir of 20 to 30 singers of varied backgrounds and experience who are committed to learning and performing works from the great classical choral repertoire. The choir was founded in 1977 by Dr. Donald Oglesby. Known for its performances of Baroque masterpieces in conjunction with the Miami Bach Society, Collegium has also commissioned and performed new music. Originally part of the University of Miami's choral music program, Collegium has become an independent group with 501(c)3 status.

For information about joining the choir, future events, and donations, please visit miamicollegium.org
