3:00 P.M. The 37th season opens in the heart of Hispanic Heritage Month with a program built on rhythm, memory, and unmistakable color. The Alhambra Orchestra performs side by side with Músicos por Venezuela under the direction of Maestro Daniel Andai and guest conductor Maestro Tarcisio Barreto Ceballos, joined by special guest musicians Ensamble 7/4, and singer Jonathan Acosta. Music from Bizet's Carmen and de Falla's Ritual Fire Dance gives way to Carreño's Margariteña, Márquez's Danzón No. 2, Aires de Venezuela, and a lively selection of popular favorites. An afternoon filled with familiar melodies, vibrant rhythms, and music that celebrates the richness and diversity of Hispanic culture.

TICKETS: $10 adults | $5 seniors and students

7:30 P.M. An evening where music becomes a direct bridge to those who need it most. The Alhambra Orchestra performs side by side with Músicos por Venezuela under the direction of Maestro Daniel Andai and guest conductor Maestro Tarcisio Barreto Ceballos, joined by featured singer Ina Peralta, singer Jonathan Acosta, and musicians from Ensamble 7/4. The program moves from Bizet's Carmen and de Falla's Ritual Fire Dance to Carreño's Margariteña, Márquez's Danzón No. 2, Aires de Venezuela, and a lively selection of popular favorites. Your admission includes a donation to support Venezuelan earthquake relief through All For Venezuela, turning an evening of extraordinary music into meaningful support for those rebuilding their lives.

TICKETS: Starting at $35
